Laborers International Union of North America Local #177

Any contractor that subcontracts work in counties shaded in yellow, that contractor shall encourage its subcontractors, performing work that would be covered by the collective bargaining agreement (CBA), to comply with the terms and conditions of this CBA. The contractor and the union will work together for the purpose of obtaining qualified and competitive subcontractors who agree to comply with the terms and conditions of the CBA. However, the contractor may subcontract any work to a subcontractor who is not signatory to this collective bargaining agreement with Local 177 and the contractor will not be in violation of any collective bargaining agreement with Local 177.
